Background

- A We are the airport lessee company and operate the Darwin International Airport, the Alice Springs Airport and the Tennant Creek Airport as appropriate each under a 50 year lease (plus a 49 year option) granted by the Commonwealth of Australia, which leases commence on 11 June 1998 ('Airport Lease').
- B As and from 1 July 2002, the Commonwealth's oversight pricing regime, CPI-X, no longer applies and it is the Commonwealth's intention that from 1 July 2002, we should agree with aircraft operators, on a commercial basis, a new pricing regime for Aviation Services, and General Airport Services.
- C We agree to supply Aviation Services, Government Mandated Services and General Airport Services to you on the terms of these Conditions unless otherwise agreed.
- D In consideration of the supply of the services described in paragraph C above, you agree to pay the Charges and otherwise comply with your obligations under these Conditions.
